

APRIL 2017 NEWSLETTER

Hi Everyone!!

Did you see that our cruise star StevenBe had Lady Gaga at his store in Minneapolis!!! Holy moly!! Maybe we can get a big star who knits for our yarn crawl next year!! Let me know if any of you are acquainted with one personally!!!

As usual, classes look great this month and next. Barbara is a wonderful curriculum manager. If you have a special request, just let her know. It's a good time to get started on a new skill, brushing up on an old one, or even ideas for the coming holidays. Just be sure to call for space by the day before the class begins. If you don't see what you need, call for a private lesson. It's all on the website knitandstitchboutique.com

Six of us are going to TNNA in Ohio this June. We are looking for new and exciting yarns for you. Many times, we find new gadgets and knick-knacks too. For those of you who are unfamiliar, TNNA is our National Needle Arts industry show. Unlike "Stitches" or "Vogue Live", this show is exclusively for our side of the business. Speaking of new yarn, we are getting another shipment from Baah of our OBYC yarn—the color that was only available from our yarn crawl. We do have a list if you would like a skein or another skein. Just give the shop a call. We also ordered ten more colors of the Baah Savannah because we loved the Crawl yarn so much. Thanks to Laura at Four Purls, this was a great choice this year!

Cruise News

We are very excited to tell you about an article that is coming out soon in the summer issue of "Interweave Knits." We have a full page ad with Cascade Yarns and when the magazine found out about our meeting with Haitibabi in Haiti, Lisa Shroyer from their staff wrote a lovely piece about it for us. Be sure to pick up an issue and save it, especially if you are sailing with us.

The cruise is filling up. If you are thinking about it, feel free to call the travel Agent (321-242-1331) for cabin prices or the shop for more information about our activities on board. (321-632-4579) Cruisers will be receiving the class sign-ups in mid-May. Many of our past travelers are back with us this year. We are very excited about everything we have planned for this trip! It is always a fun experience meeting and spending time with knitters and crocheters from all over the country and the world! Welcome aboard!

That's our news for now. Lots going on in the shop every day. I am always hearing laughter and good conversation. Remember we have free help if you get lost in your pattern or have made a mistake you are unable to rectify. We can rip out anything you bring in!!! Life lines are helpful if you are working a lace pattern! Eddie also teaches a mistakes class that is invaluable.
